

Pearle Vision Comes To Bulova Corporate Center

Pearle Vision in Ozone Park for more than 20 years recently took over 75-37 31st Avenue in Jackson Heights. They spent two days at Gotti's Café in the Bulova Corporate Center offering the community excellent eye care. Three people won a complete eye exam and a pair of glasses worth $500 each. Pearl Vision is on most of the eye care and union plans that cover a large percentage of the workforce and their families in Queens. They are open seven days a week with a doctor on premises.
